

Marcia Hoffmann

Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Corporate Trade & Investment Queensland

Marcia has had a long career in executive management in both central and line agencies in Federal, State and Territory jurisdictions. Starting her public service career in the Northern Territory (NT), she later joined the Queensland Public Service in 1999 and since then has worked for five separate departments. Marcia returned to the NT in 2011 as head of Corporate Services with the NT Department of Education and later as CEO for the NT Department of Transport. She re-joined the Queensland Public Service in May 2013 as Deputy Director General, Department of Agriculture and Fisheries and since April 2016 has been working with the CEO TIQ leading a major change initiative for the agency.

Marcia has tertiary qualifications in the humanities and management and has specialised in leading large multi-disciplinary teams, corporate governance, policy development, change management and government service delivery in rural and remote regions and cross cultural settings.
