

WIDE BAY BURNETT

Brett Tucker

Principal Trade & Investment Officer

Brett is an experienced Trade Adviser who has served throughout regional Queensland and worked in a diverse range of regional economies.

He has enabled regional exporters to grow their businesses through:

- gaining scale by working together in alliances, cooperatives and company structures
- strategic investment to grow their businesses through chain partnership, grants, restructuring or debt/equity refinancing
- direct equity investment
- innovative marketing and manufacturing initiatives
- market introductions and building new export market opportunities.

Brett has significantly contributed to Trade & Investment Queensland to advocate new initiatives, programs and policies that directly assist in adapting and nurturing regional business and export market development.

Brett's team led efforts have enabled businesses and communities to:

- grow new markets
- develop new initiatives and new economies
- benefit from new investment and grow their global competitiveness
- grow their businesses and employ more workers in regional Queensland

- overcome business impediments that proved difficult to achieve from a regional perspective
- develop new skills, training and perspectives in approaching economic development.

A passionate advocate for regional Queensland business, Brett takes pride in seeing regional businesses succeed in trade, investment and innovation.
