

NORTH QUEENSLAND

Roger Kaus
Principal Trade & Investment Officer

Roger has been involved with agricultural industries for over forty years serving in the Maranoa, South East, Central West and Northern regions of Queensland.

Currently based in Townsville, Roger's focus for Trade & Investment Queensland includes investment and export services in the priority sectors of food and agribusiness, international education, mining and resources, and infrastructure and construction.

Since 1995, Roger has been working to connect foreign businesses with Queensland companies. He has experience in primary industry sectors including beef and dairy cattle, livestock marketing and production, animal health services and international business.

Project work included market development within the agribusiness export sector and during this time developed a network of international, national and state wide clients while coordinating outward and inward trade missions to and from China, South East Asia, North Africa and South America.

In his current role, Roger works to promote Queensland's export products as well as projects seeking to identify foreign investment.
